

- ➔ Seeking employment?
- ➔ Looking for clients?
- ➔ Have positions to fill?
- ➔ Interested in starting your own business?

Join us at the

Brookline Networking Group

Brookline Networking Group (BrNG) meetings are open to everyone in Brookline and outlying communities. Join us to learn job search and business networking skills, and hear expert presentations including how to become a consultant, the steps needed to build one's own business, finding the hidden job market, and other timely topics. The meeting is open to the public; a $1 donation is requested.

When

Third Tuesday of every month from 7 to 9 PM.

Where

Temple Ohabei Shalom, 1187 Beacon Street, Brookline.
Kent Street stop on the Green Line C Train.

Jan 19

Discover how social media marketing can help you gain the edge in today's competitive job marketing. Presented by Barbara Bix.

Barbara Bix, the Managing Principal of BB Marketing Plus, will discuss how you can use LinkedIn, Twitter, and social networks to keep your finger on the pulse, stay top of mind with referral sources, and stand out at job interviews. Barbara is a seasoned marketing strategist and has successfully used the techniques she'll present to attract attention from publications such as The Wall Street Journal -- and prospective clients seeking marketing assistance.

LinkedIn Group site: Brookline Networking Group (BrNG). To receive ongoing information about this group, send an email to BrooklineNetworking-subscribe@yahoogroups.com.