

An Evening with James Carroll

Sunday, March 29, 2009

7:00 - 9:00 pm

at

All Saints Parish

1773 Beacon Street, Brookline MA

(corner of Beacon Street and Dean Road)

Presented by the RUAH Spirituality Institute and Cooperative Metropolitan Ministries (CMM)

James Carroll will read from his new book, Practicing Catholic, and discuss how people can take back their religious traditions.

"This is not a book only for Catholics. Every reader will be thrilled by the brilliantly written, passionate, and vivid story of a Catholic who has lived the ups and downs of his church since the Second Vatican Council. James Carroll offers most precious insights into the various dimensions of Roman Catholicism, past, present, and future."

Hans Küng

President of the Global Ethic Foundation

Suggested Donation to benefit CMM and RUAH: $12

For more information, please contact Barbara Bembery at RUAH Spirituality Institute
(phone) 617-277-0036 or
(email) ruahspirit@gmail.com

