In this witty and polemical book, Eagleton demolishes what he calls the “superstitious” view of God held by most atheists and agnostics and offers in its place a revolutionary account of the Christian Gospel. He also launches a stinging assault on the betrayal of this revolution by institutional Christianity. Regarded by many to be Britain’s most influential living literary critic, he has written more than 40 books. This is an exceptional contribution to recent debates around faith, religion, and atheism.

Led by David Killian and Peter Stringham. For more information, contact Peter at peter.stringham@gmail.com or David at rectord@allsaintsbrookline.org. Copies available in the Guild Room. Bagels, juice, and coffee will be served.
