

Explorations in Faith

Six Mondays,
September 28 - November 9
7:00 - 8:30 pm

Led by David Killian, Laurie Rofinot, and Philip Major

"Explorations" is an introductory course for those who want to take a fresh look at Christianity; who are unsure of their beliefs or are alienated from the faith of their childhood; who are new to All Saints; who wish to be baptized, confirmed, or received into the Episcopal Church. The course will present the basic beliefs and practices of the Christian faith and include lecture, discussion, and Bible study. We will be reading Growing in Faith: A Guide for the Reluctant Christian, by David Yount (available in the Guild Room).

September 28 - Introducing ourselves and the course (Chapter 1)

October 5 - Jesus and His Message and the Life of Love (Chapters 3 and 4)

October 12 (No Class)

October 19 - Worship and Prayer (Chapter 6)

October 26 - The Bible and the First Millennium of Faith (Chapters 7 and 8)

November 2 - Second Millennium and The Church and Reformation (Ch 9 & 10)

November 9 - Unpopular Messages and One Church, Many Choices (Ch 11 & 12)
