

CELTIC MINI RETREAT:

SAMHAIN:

DEATH, DYING AND RESURRECTION

Saturday, November 1, 2008

3:00 - 4:30 PM

All Saints Parish, 1773 Beacon Street, Brookline

On the Celtic feast of Samhain, the holiest day of the year and the new year on the Celtic calendar, the Celts felt a special closeness to the dead.

How can the ancient Celtic wisdom help us to understand our mortality and the hope of transformation? Through word and song, we will reflect on these great mysteries.

Led by Dylan Dalton, organizational consultant and Celtic practitioner.

No fee, but free will donations are accepted. Please join us for Celtic Eucharist at 5:00 PM. A reception with the leader will be held from 6:00-7:00 PM.

For more information, call 617-738-1810 or email office@allsaintsbrookline.org. To learn more about the Celtic spirituality program at All Saints Parish, visit www.allsaintsbrookline.org.